NEWS FROM NYSSA

The large flocks of sheep which have been wintering in the country around Nyssa are now being driven to the hills for the summer, where there will soon be grass in abundance.

Nyssa schools, at present, are preparing for the contest at Vale, which will be held March 27th. An effort is being made to charter a special train for the purpose of transporting the enthusiasts and bringing back the cup.

A new game of Volley Ball has been introduced into the play grounds by Prof. Voegellen and seems to be very popular with the pupils.

Several people from Nyssa and surrounding country who have been traveling in various parts of the continent, have returned home advising the residents of Nyssa to remain in "The Old Snake River Valley." The Colorado skies may be blue, and sunny California alluring, but there's something about this country that brings them back. Among the latest arrivals are Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Beam, Paul Childers and Mr. E. J. Rich.

The seed sown by Prof. Morris in his recent lecture to the school children, have become deeply rooted in the minds of the little ones, so deeply indeed that classes have been formed, under the leadership of Miss Childers in fruit canning. Mr. Sherwood has taken charge of the dairy record keeping.

The Western hotel will be reopened by Mrs. Mary Steinkamp on or about April 1st.

Miss Edith Iredale, who has been teaching in Jordan Valley, returned home last Thursday, much to the delight of her many friends.

The Nyssa bridge has now become a teeming thoroughfare for automobiles and motorcycles, which have been making the most of the beautiful weather and excellent roads attendant.

On Monday of last week a number of young men of the Baptist church met at the parsonage with tools in hand and money to purchase materials for a thorough renovation of the building. The upper story was thoroughly cleaned up. The walls of the lower story were recalcimined, the woodwork varnished, tiling floors and linoleums painted. The pastor, wife and son are now neatly domiciled in the parsonage.

Topic for the Sunday services at the Baptist church will be 11 a. m., "Divine Vision Necessary to Human Salvation." 7:30 p. m., The young people will have charge of the service, "Missions."

The B. Y. P. U. of the Baptist church will hold their monthly business meeting on Friday evening at 7:30 p. m. A program will follow the business meeting.

"SPOT" THORNTON
IS AGAIN IN JAILSheriff Brown Arrives With Man From San Diego
California

Sheriff Ben Brown returned Saturday from San Diego, California, with "Spot" Thornton in tow, who is wanted here to answer a charge of grand larceny. "Spot" is accused of having robbed the O. K. Restaurant in Ontario last September. He was arrested at that time and placed under cash bonds of $200.00 which he forfeited.

Sheriff Brown has been hunting for the man, however, and finally located him in San Diego. Requisition papers were necessary in order to bring the man back, and these were secured by Sheriff Brown before going to California. Thornton is now lodged in the county jail, and will probably remain there until his trial.

John Leary of Placerville, Idaho, was in town Friday to visit his sister, Ellen, who is confined in the Holy Rosary hospital.
